

SHOPPING in PALM SPRINGS

with NICHOLAS HERTNECK & LAWRENCE LAZZARO

Nicholas Hertneck and Lawrence Lazzaro, the design duo behind Nicholas Lawrence Interior Design, recently transformed their Palm Desert studio into a retail showroom that will exclusively bring a thoughtfully curated collection of home furnishings, original artwork, and accessories to the Coachella Valley.

“There are some incredible lines like Dellarobbia, Alf DaFre, and Made Goods—to name a few—that we find ourselves coming back to again and again with our design work,” explains the pair, whose residential and commercial projects can be found throughout Southern California as well as in New York, Bali, and the Virgin Islands. “So we are excited to be a local resource for others who appreciate these amazing collections too.”

Here, the desert duo shares some favorite local shops that they turn to when on the hunt for exquisite finds.

Christopher Anthony Ltd. is an all-time favorite for its high-quality vintage furniture, outstanding accessories, and the owners' dry wit. We recently found some Charles Hollis Jones acrylic pieces from the '60s and '70s here that we love. —803 N. Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs

Palm Canyon Galleria is always a great resource for mid-century pieces and unusual accessories. —457 N. Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs

Interior's Designer our neighbor in the Palm Desert Design District, has great pieces for the garden as well as fantastic Old World artifacts. —41801 Corporate Way, Suite 9, Palm Desert

We always stop by Hedge when looking for vintage furniture and accessories. Recently we found a collection of primitive carved stone heads displayed on these beautiful boxes with an ebony stain. We snatched up every last one. —68-929 Perez Road, Suite F, Cathedral City

Trina Turk is the quintessential Palm Springs fashion designer and her shop is the best place to pick up statement pieces—like a pair of turquoise corduroy shorts or a hip accessory—when you need something new to wear to a party or other event. —891 North Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs

We love Classic Consignments because you really never know what you might find here. —73847 El Paseo, Palm Desert

And, when it comes time to recharge, we will never turn down an invitation to Rooster and Pig for their light Vietnamese-American fare. But, be forewarned, they don't take reservations so it's best not to go with a large group. —356 South Indian Canyon Drive, Palm Springs
